Cupid touched the heart of Henry Hop-boarding for several months at the Schmudtz home, No. 125 Market avenue, maker. Hopkins liked the biscuits, and then became enamired of the maker. As a result, he applied at the marriage limit to wed Miss Schmudtz.

The request was refused because of the youthfulness of Miss Schmudtz, so Hop-youthfulness of Miss Schmudiz, so Hop-kins returned to his boarding-house and secured a written permit from the girl's mother. Fortified with this, he made a second re-quest, but was informed that he would have to have the sanction of the father. Mr. Schmudiz is an employe of the stock yards, so Hopkins arranged with the clerk to fill out the license and take it home with him. Meanwhile, he called on his prospective father-in-law, received the necessary permit and exchanged it for

FAMILY QUARREL ENDS IN TRAGEDY.

While Visiting Marshal Sheff Henry Hopkins Likes Them So Kills Edward Cardwell, Who Is Said to Have Attacked His Wife With Knife.

Edward Cardwell was shot and instantly killed at Alton by Marshal Sheff on kins through his stomach and caused him Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. much trouble at the marriage license Emma Layton in Indiana avenue. Sheff clerk's office yesterday.

was taken into custody that night and is Hopkins is 21 years old and has been held at the Police Station in Alton pending the result of the inquest over the body of Cardwell, which was begun yesterday aft-ernoon by Deputy Coroner C. N. Streeper II years of age, but she is a good hiscultof Upper Alton

From the testimony so far brought out at the Coroner's inquest, the killing ocurred in a fight at the Layton home. The Cardwells were driven from their home by the flood, and have been staying with days. At the inquest Mrs. Layton testi-fied that her daughter had quarreled with Cardwell in the early part of the evening, and that he had gone away and had re-turned several times, demanding admitnance.
Finally, abcording to Mrs. Layton, Cardwell broke in the door and deciared he intended to kill the entire family. Mrs. Layton said that he attacked his wife with a long knife, but that she escaped by running into another room. In this room Miss Maggie Layton and Marshal Sheff

Miss Maggie Layton and Marshai Sheff were spending the evening. Cardwell followed his wire, and, on seeing Sheff there, is said to have attempted to stab him. Sheff, according to his statement, drew his revolver and nred three shots at Cardwell. Two builets entered Cardwell's head and the third his shoulder.

Cardwell was 34 years old and had been married several times, it is said. He has served a term in the Southern Illinois Penitentiary at Chester for larceny. Besides his wife, one child survives.

Departy Cotoner C. N. Streeper will probably finish the inquest this morning.

Sheff is 19 years old, a packer at the plant of the Illinois Glass Company and a member of the Alton Navai Militia.

PIONEER BUSINESS MAN DEAD.

Charles Phinney, Head of Grocery Charles Phinney, said to be the oldest active business man in Alton and Southern Illinois, died at an early hour yesterday morning at his home in Alton at the age of Si years. Mr. Phinney enjoyed the distinction of having been continuously in business in Atton for more than sixty-six years, and was the active head of the Charles Phinney Wholesale Grocery Company at the time of his deam.

Mr. Phinney was a native of Wanquoot, Mass. His father was a master mariner, and in his youth Mr. Phinney made a number of coasting trips. Upon coming West he first settled in Chomnath, O. In ISS he came to Atton and engaged in the wholesale grocery business. During his residence in Alton Mr. Phinney was affiliated with the Presbyterian Church. He was married to Miss Sarah Allard of Alton. Six children were born to this union, but the wife and children have all preceded him to the grave.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from the Phinney homestead in Twelfth street, and the burial will be in the City Cemetery. of 23 years. Mr. Phinney enjoyed the dis-

Deputy Clerk Frank A. Bierbaum of Alton yesterday issued marriage licenses to Benjamin C. Hatheway and Mrs. S. E. Kelsey, both of Brighton, III., and William Harvey Clark and Mrs. Martha Burton, both of Alton. The first couple are 61 and 56 years old respectively, and were married by the Reverend M. H. Ewers, paster of the Sixth Street M. E. Church.

Mrs. Joshua Sweeney of Jerseyville died vesterday morning from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. A husband and one daughter survive. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 10:20 o'clock from the First Baptist Church. The Reverend Doctor Jay A. Ford will officiate, and the burial will be in tak from Commetery.

Street Workers' Strike Ended. The Arbitration Committee selected at the instance of Mayor Fred J. Kern of Belleville to settle the differences between the laborers and the contractors who are improving felleville streets was successful yesterday in bringing about a settle-ment of the trouble. The findings of the board were satisfactory to the men and their employers, and all will be at work this morning.

REVIEW OF THE IRON TRADE.

The decision of the merchant-producers of Lake Superior to maintain no association this year, and agreement as to price or output, while contrary to the expectations, encouraged by many recent expressions from high sources, was not supprising in these who have been advised of the sentiment of the merchant firms. This action is not so significant as it would have been two months ago, as in the meantime term contracts involving considerable amounts of ore have been negotiated, leaving not more than 2,000,000 tons that will require to be lought in the open market this year.

The prices of 100 ove under these new-term contracts are somewhat lower than the 33.0 has tentatively referred to in the resolution-of the merchant ore men adopted in their separate meeting at New York two weeks ago. Standard Messahs becomers are understood to have gone at about E. These contracts are on a siliding acab, based on the pig from market. More of them are likely to be made, so that the necessity of an association movement promises to grow steadily less, though the ore men easyect to keep up their organization for statistical purposes. Ore for 100 is not expected to come down before June 1, but furnaces in most cases are well expelled with many of them for weeks beyond that date. The lake labor situation is threatening, wage advances on a declining market naturally meeting determined resistance.

The real trade, next to one is the most in-

The Care Girardeau arrived yesterday mornagainst the East St. Louis and Suburban Electric Railroad Company for injuries sustained on the rear end of a street car in East St. Louis in 1896.

The car was run into by another and Mr. Hopkins was hurt. The argument of the attorneys for the street-car company was to the effect that a passenger had no right to ride on the platforms of cars, and that if there were no vacant seats the passenger should wait for the next car or remain on the platform at his own risk. The evidence showed, further, that had Mr. Hopkins been inside the car he would have escaped injury. against the East St. Louis and Suburban

CHOCTAW INDIAN ARRESTED. Joseph R. Sequichie Is Charged

With Impersonating an Officer. Joseph R. Sequichle, a fullblood Choctaw Indian, is a prisoner at the Four Courts, charged with impersonating an officer. C. W. Smith, a merchant of Illinois, made the complaint. Mr. Smith is a guest at the Southern,

To Assistant Chief of Detectives Keely Mr. Smith said that he came to St. Louis on a Chicago and Alton train. Sequichie occupied a seat across the aisle. Smith engaged in conversation with another man, and they had a drink together.

Smith and the stranger went to a saloon and they had another drink. The stranger collapsed and Smith returned to the hotel alone.

The Indian, who had followed Smith, went to Smith's room, said he was a detective and accused him of giving the other man 'mockout drops, saying that the matter could be 'fixed up.'

Sequichie gave his address as Chelsea, I. T., and told the desk sergeant that he is a fullblood Choctaw. He denies the charge. on a Chicago and Alton train. Sequichie

The will of Simon F. Duffy, filed for robate yesterday, bequeaths his estate, onsisting of $500 life insurance, to his friend, Margaret Hack. The will recites that he was a widower, and that none of his children, or the descendants of de-ceased children, or any claimant, or heir who shall contest the will, shall receive any share of his estate. The will was ex-ecuted April 20, 1804.

The last house ball of the season last night at the Hamilton Hotel was made gay by the many officers of foreign armies who appeared in full uniform, and the foreign Commissioners who were their decorations. The ballrooms of the hotel were crowded. Many State and foreign Commissioners were present, including attaches of the Chinese and Japanese commissioners.
